THE THIRD SISTER

CHARLIE ROBERTSEN 1

Original title: Den tredje søsteren
Charlie Robertsen 1
Publisher: Cappelen Damm, 2010
Category: Crime/Thriller
Pages: 432

Three sisters. Two murdered. One witness.

Nadia should have been killed. Her sisters Samira and Nazma are brutally murdered, but Nadia manages to hide just in time.

Who is behind the murders? Why were the sisters killed? What will happen to Nadia? As the case unravels, it takes us into closed environments in Oslo and faraway villages in Pakistan. Mikkel, a journalist, colleague and friend of Nadia, is the one who will seek to find the answer to the mystery.

The Third Sister is a dramatic story, told in a realistic and straightforward way. Moreover, the author never lets the material become dry or theoretical; he constantly illustrates his points through action-packed storytelling, presenting his agenda without ever diminishing the suspense. Undoubtedly this autumn's most topical crime novel.
