A man attempts to commit suicide in Bergen, but a passing hiker intervenes. When the police arrive, the man is found dead and the hiker has disappeared without a trace.

At the same time, Sebastian Maddox, an IT employee, is found dead in a courtyard. Did he commit suicide or has he been killed? Inconsistencies in the investigation are revealed, and police chief Ole Vik is asked to review the case.

The contours of a cynical man slowly emerge—a man who ruthlessly executes anyone who stands in his way.
