

Ingebjørg Berg Holm

BAREFOOT OVER THE ICE

Original title: Barføtt over isen
Publisher: Vigmostad Bjørke, 2018
Category: Crime/Thriller
Pages: 251

AWARDS

The Maurits Hansen Award 2016
Nominated to the Riverton Award 2016

It is Winter in Hurum 1875, the fog drifts across the fields, the fjord freezes over and the beaches around Holmsbu are blemished by maltreated cat bodies.

Thomas Tinnvik is sheriff in Hurum for some years, he lives alone and keep a distance to most people in the little town. From his window, Thomas has a view of the magnificent villa called "The Palace." During the crushingly lonely nights he seeks comfort from the light of the Palace's tower – where his closest friend, the elderly Miss Parelus lies ill, surrounded by her large book collection. The two friends share the love for books. It comes as a relief for most when Parelus dies, but the fact that a book is stolen from her room, is viewed by Tinnvik as most disturbing. Because something has happened that has changed everything for him. The past, which he has managed to keep secret until now, comes to Holmsbu with a young man, and Tinnvik decides to act. The sheriff begins to plan a murder.

Barefoot over the ice is both a cleverly constructed, classical mystery, and a gothic LGBTH love story.

Ingebjørg Berg Holm

Ingebjørg Berg Holm (b. 1980) was nominated for the prestigious Riverton Prize for her debut thriller Stars Over, Darkness Below in 2016. Raging Bear is her third book.

